

Winter on the Green in Historic Downtown Frankfort

January 10: Ice Fest

Experience the magic when an ice sculpture unfolds before your eyes during a demonstration by professional ice sculptors. Ride the elegant heated trolley (free of charge) through downtown Frankfort and view ice sculptures on display. The Illinois Alaskan Malamute Rescue Association will be on hand with their beautiful dogs for your enjoyment. What a "cool" way to spend your Sunday afternoon!

January 17: Winter Carnival

Bring the entire family for an afternoon of winter fun with music, carnival games and a giant inflatable. A ski instructor will be on hand to teach participants how to cross country ski, and DJ Don Gray will keep you warm by dancing the cold away. Jump around in our giant inflatable or win prizes with our carnival games—it's up to you!

January 24: Snow-ology

Have you ever wondered about the science of "snow"? This is your chance to discover "Snow-ology" through hands on activities & crafts. Join the KidsWork Children's Museum as they explore the many facets of snow in a fun and exciting way for the entire family to enjoy! Special visit from Frosty the Snowman!

January 31: Chili Cook-Off

Calling all Chili Lovers! Whether you enter our Chili Cook-Off contest or just come out to taste some of the best homemade Chili in the SW suburbs, our 14th annual Chili Cook-Off is for you! To enter your world-famous Chili, visit the Frankfort Chamber of Commerce website at www.frankfortchamber.com or stop in at the Village Hall (432 W. Nebraska) to pick up your entry form. On a "Chili" day let your taste buds sizzle!

February 7: Superbowl/Valentine's Weekend

Come celebrate our pre-game "Superbowl" event featuring "Elvis" (Dave Thomas), FREE horse drawn carriage rides and the halftime "Puppy Bowl" at 2:30 PM. Bring out your four-legged athlete dressed up in their favorite team apparel (or referee, cheerleader, etc.). The best dressed dogs will win a trophy. Every pooch will get a free football!
